Open Harness Bridle

The most common type seen in harness racing, allowing the horse to see in all directions. Generally suits majority of horses. Can also be converted to a closed bridle with the addition of blinds and some minor adjustments. It also has attachments for headcheck.

● Black	523011
● Blue	523012
● Yellow	523014
● Red	523017
○ White	523018

Extended Throat Harness Bridle

Otherwise known as Extended Head bridle, its design places the throatlash much further back behind the ears and is preferred for horses who have a habit of getting out of their bridles.

Converts to a closed bridle by adding Square Eye Blinds & Noseband or Kant-See-Bak & Noseband.

● Black	523001
● Blue	523002
● Green	523005

OPEN

Open Eye Blind (Billet Ends)

The unique Blind Bridle that has the restrictions of a blind bridle but also allows a limited view of the side through a hole in the blind. The hook & loop patches that cover the holes on the blinds are easy to fit and remove, permitting customisation for each horse.

522081

NEW

Murphy Blinds

For horses that turn their heads to one side while racing. Window model features removable panel to create a centre window for partial vision if required.

A Standard	B With Window
521770	521780

Noseband For Blind

Fits the Square Eye with Noseband or Kant-See-Bak with Noseband, both designed for use with the Extended Head Bridle.

Kant-See-Bak Blind & Noseband

Sometimes referred to as "Dolly Varden" blinds. Prevents horses from seeing behind to focus on going forward. Suits Extended Head Bridle. Features 2 slot positions for noseband.

With Noseband	Without Noseband
521111	521131

Square Eye Blind & Noseband

For uninterrupted forward vision, preventing any vision to the side or rear. It is more restrictive than the Kant-See-Bak design. Suits Extended Head Bridle. Features 2 slot positions for noseband.

With Noseband	Without Noseband
522001	522021

Pull-Down Square Eye Blind

The Pull Down Blind allows the driver to start the race with the blinds in the "up" position which then can be pulled down, via the nylon cord, during the race as required.

522101

Hood Blind (Billet Ends)

More restrictive than the Kant-See-Bak or Square Eye design yet more open than the Telescopic blind, as the horse is still able to see down in front.

521581

Telescopic Blinds

Sometimes referred to as a "Peek-a-boo" bridle. Provides very narrow field of vision straight in front. Particularly useful for horse's who spook easily.

521765
